

ELECTRICAL SAFETY AT WORK SITES

All electrical equipment on work sites are potentially — DEADLY.

Electrical extension cords at work sites are easily damaged because of the rough conditions in which they are used.

STOP AND THINK...

SAFETY & HEALTH

ELECTRICAL SAFETY AT WORK SITES

WSH

(General Provisions) Regulations

state that...

Clause 14

All electrical installation and equipment shall be of good construction, free from defects, used and maintained in a safe manner.

All reasonably practicable measures to be taken to protect against electrical shocks. is liable to be fine $20,000 or prison up to 2 years.

STOP AND THINK...

SAFETY & HEALTH

ELECTRICAL SAFETY AT WORK SITES

Electrical Power Circuits

The appropriate warning signs shall be clearly posted and maintained in places where there are tools or machines.

Energy Department,
Prime Minister's Office

STOP AND THINK...

SAFETY & HEALTH

ELECTRICAL SAFETY AT WORK SITES

Welding Sets

It is the duty of the employer to ensure that all alternating current welding sets are fitted with an effective voltage limiting device or shock preventor.

Energy Department,
Prime Minister's Office

STOP AND THINK...

SAFETY & HEALTH

ELECTRICAL SAFETY AT WORK SITES

Industrial Plug & Socket-Outlet

It is the duty of the employer to ensure that any industrial plug and socket-outlet used in the worksite is of a heavy duty industrial type

STOP AND THINK...

SAFETY & HEALTH